

MAKE YOUR VACATION A DIFFERENT ADVENTURE

SANTA FE ATTRACTIONS & ACTIVITIES

Perched 7,000 feet atop the Rocky Mountains, Santa Fe invites you to an adventure in contrasts. View cutting-edge art displayed in historic adobe buildings. Shop in open-air markets for everything from locally-grown produce at the renowned Santa Fe Farmers' Market to handcrafted Native American jewelry under the portal at the historic Palace of the Governors.

Experience breathtaking riding, running, hiking, skiing, and rafting in Santa Fe's surrounding mountains or simply exhale at any one of our world-class, soul soothing spas. See firsthand why Conde Nast Traveler ranked Santa Fe The Best Small City in America. In Santa Fe, it only takes a weekend to have the adventure of a lifetime.

- WIDE RANGE OF ACCOMMODATIONS
- PRISTINE MOUNTAIN SETTING
- LEGENDARY VISUAL ARTS SCENE
- REJUVENATING SPAS
- INCOMPARABLE CUISINE
- VIBRANT PERFORMING ARTS

250 RESTAURANTS

40 MARKETS

14 MUSEUMS

TOURISM SANTA FE

201 W. MARCY ST, SANTA FE, NM, 87501

800.777.2489 | SANTAFE.ORG

ONLY-IN-SANTA FE ATTRACTIONS

THE SANTA FE PLAZA

The heart of downtown Santa Fe for more than 400 years, the Plaza hosts art markets, community gatherings, concerts and more.

CANYON ROAD

One of Santa Fe's oldest roads, Canyon Road packs more than 80 galleries along a half-mile stretch.

PALACE OF THE GOVERNORS

Built by the Spanish as a government building in 1610, the Palace remains the country's oldest continuously occupied public building and serves as a history museum.

GEORGIA O'KEEFFE MUSEUM

The Georgia O'Keeffe Museum is the single largest repository of O'Keeffe's work in the world.

ONLY-IN-SANTA FE EVENTS

JANUARY

- Ceremonial Pueblo Dances
- WinterBrew
- Souper Bowl

FEBRUARY

- ARTfeast
- Santa Fe Restaurant Week
- Santa Fe Pro Musica Events

MARCH

- SITE Santa Fe's workSHoP Opening
- Winter Hispanic Market
- Brahms & Stavinsky performed by Santa Fe Symphony

APRIL

- Santa Fe Japanese Cultural Festival
- Aspen Santa Fe Ballet Season Opens
- Battlefields & Homefronts New Mexico: The Civil War & More

MAY

- Native Treasures
- Outside Magazine Bike & Brew Festival
- Canyon Road Spring Art Festival

JUNE

- New Mexico Cocktail Week
- Currents New Media Festival
- FantaSe Fest

THE RAILYARD

Once a stop along the famed Burlington Santa Fe Railroad, The Railyard is now one of Santa Fe's premier mixed-use areas with contemporary galleries, live performances, retail shopping and innovative dining.

THE SANTA FE OPERA

World-renown productions take place at the Opera's famed outdoor theater with breathtaking 360-degree vistas.

MUSEUM HILL

Museum Hill is home to four marquee museums: Museum of Indian Arts & Culture, Wheelwright Museum of the American Indian, Museum of Spanish Colonial Arts, & Museum of International Folk Art.

MEOW WOLF

The Meow Wolf Art Complex is home to Meow Wolf's first permanent installation, House of Eternal Return.

JULY

- Santa Fe Opera Season Opens
- Santa Fe International Folk Art Market
- Spanish Colonial Arts Society's Spanish Market

AUGUST

- SWAIA Indian Market
- Whitehawk Antique Shows
- Summer Festival & Frontier Days at Rancho de las Golondrinas

SEPTEMBER

- Burning of Zozobra
- Fiestas de Santa Fe
- Santa Fe Wine & Chile Fiesta

OCTOBER

- Santa Fe Independent Film Festival
- Historic Canyon Road Paint Out & Sculpt Out
- Harvest Festival at Rancho de las Golondrinas

NOVEMBER

- Ski Santa Fe Opens
- SWAIA Winter Indian Market
- Recycle Santa Fe Art Festival

DECEMBER

- Christmas at the Palace
- Canyon Road Christmas Eve Farolito Walk
- New Year's Eve on the Plaza

